VOL. XII. NO. 94. CHARLEROI, WASHINGTON CO., PA., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1911 One Cent

WILL ASK TO HAVE THE COUNTY VOTES TALLIED

Martin to Serve Notice of His Contest Within a Few Days

NOT AT ALL SATISFIED

Other Proceedings May be Entered--Hon. Ed. Callaghan Makes Statement

Word from the county seat is to the effect that Joseph W. Martin of California, the Democrotic-Keystone candidate for prothonotary, who according to the official count, was defeated by Dr. A. V. Lewis, of Donora, the Republican candidate by just 12 votes, will within a few days file notice of a contest through his attorneys, Sprowls and Barr. It is stated that an effort will be made to get the matter into the courts for adjudication at the earliestpossible time.

Evidence is being collected from various parts of the county, it is stated, and the marking of the double cross ballots will not be the only reason for making an investigation. Since the opinion of the Dauphin county court, stating that the double marked ballots clearly intimated the intention of the voter and ought to be counted as one was rendered, Martin feels much encouraged to make a contest. Charges of fraud and irregularity will also be made in some of the precincts, it is stated, one of which is the second precinct at Donora. In this precinct it is stated that ballots were cast before the board was organized, and that other irregularities were practiced.

In addition to Martin's impending contest another one is threatened. This is by former Assemblyman Edward Callaghan, who claims his name was illegaly omitted from the official ballot as a straight-out Democratic candidate for sheriff. Mr. Callaghan was a candidate for the nomination at the primaries. He refused to enter into a fusion agreement with the Keystoners, and claims that as he was not a party to the agreement he was entitled to a place on the ballot as the nominee of the Democratic party. Concerning this Mr. Callaghan says:

"As the intent of the voter is recognized by the law of 1903 and upheld by the Dauphin county court in the present case, it gives me a clean card as I can get the affidavit of every man who voted for me at the primary that I should be on the ballot as the straight-out candidate on the Democratic ticket."

As previously stated, Mr. Callaghan has prepared a petition to court asking that the election be set aside on these grounds He has already obtained a numebr of signatures to his petition and declares that he will carry the contest into the courts.

Accepts Call To Pastorate

Rev. E. J. Stanley of Newport, Ohio, Will Be Shepherd of Flock Here

Rev. Edwin J. Stanley, of Newport, Ohio, has sent word of his acceptance of the call extended over a week by the First Baptist church of Charleroi. He will be here to assume charge of the local pastorate the first Sunday in December. Last Saturday night he presented his resignation to his congregation at Newport and it was accepted

Rev. Stanley was extended a call conjunctively with the Donora Baptist church and half his work will be at the latter place He is a graduate of Dennisen university, and went to Newport from Sandusky, having been at the former place for about two years. He was at one time a missionary in Africa.

TO KEEP THEATRE RUNNING

The Coyle Will be Open Nightly Rest of This Week

CLAIMS OF MANAGER

Although James B. Patterson, deputy State factory inspector, ordered the Coyle Theatre closed as unsafe after an inspection Wednesday the house was open last night as usual. Manager S. English announces that the house will be open as usual the rest of the week, when the regular entertainment will be given.

In regard to the action of the Deputy Factory Inspector, Manager English states that he made a mistake in ordering the house to be closed. He says the law specifies that after an inspection the inspector must notify the owner of the house of deficiencies, if any, and allow a reasonable length of time for these to be corrected. The inspector cannot, Mr. English declares, according to law, order a house closed until the owners neglect or refuse to make the alterations necessary to comply with the law.

Mr.English therefore states that the Coyle will be open the rest of the week at the usual time pending a decision as to what will be done to comply with the law.

FORMER CHARLEROI MAN IS FOUND DEAD

Supposed to Have Fired Bullet Into His Own Brain While Temporarily Insane--- Body in Old Barn

With a revolver in his hand and a bullet wound in his head Walter Currey was found in an abandoned barn of the Vigilance coal mine near California, after he had been missing for about four days. Currey is supposed to have taken his life while in a fit of insanity. He formerly lived in Charleroi and it is stated an injury sustaned on the head about two years ago led to mental aberration. Deputy Coroner H. T. Ghrist has charge of the case and is making investigations.

The funeral was held today from the home of the man's mother-in-law Mrs. R. Hall, at Coal Centre.

Currey was last seen alone on Sunday when it is stated he visited friends in Brownsville. He left his home Saturday night and according to the story purchased a revolver. The next time he was seen by his wife he was dead.

Mrs Currey was employed when he worked as a driver in the mine. He was well known in the vicinity of California. His wife survives.

MURPHY-M'KENNA NUPTIALS TODAY

Charleroi Girl Becomes the Bride of Monessen Man at Church Wedding

At St. Jerome's Catholic church this morning at 8 o'clock John Francis McKenna ,of Monessen and Miss Grace Murphy of Charleroi were married. The ceremony was perfomed by Rev. W. D. Fries. The couple were attended by James McKenna, a brother of the groom and Miss Rosalia Flaherty. After a short trip the couple will go to housekeeping in Charleroi.

A large crowd of friends of the happy couple were in attendance at the wedding and gave them a joyous send off. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Murphy of Fallowfield avenue and her vivacious and charming personality has won for her a place in the affections of a wide circle of friends. The groom holds a responsible position at the Pittsburg Steel company's plant at Monessen, and is well regarded among his associates. Both have many friends in the two towns as well as elsewhere who extend congatulations and good wishes.

UNIONTOWN BEATS MAGIC CITY FIVE IN FIRST GAME

Capt. Andy Sear's Five Outplayed in Points But Finishes Strong

Amid wild enthusiasm the Central Basketball League season was opennight. Under Captain Andy Sears the Uniontown prize winners appeared on the local floor Wednesday night and opposing the Charleroi team under Manager-Captain Jacky Adams, successfully maneuvered themselves into a 34-27 victory.

Capt. Adams had everything arranged for the opener. Even the inevitable brass band and the engrossing preliminary were not forgotten. The band preceded by banners paraded the streets and then marched to the hall where it entertained. A team from Fayette City was defeated by a picked five from here in a fast preliminary.

Adams lined up with his regular five. Father Sears, doubtless consoling himself with the belief that the new team would be a cinch, trotted out a new lineup for the first half. From start to finish the game was a hummer. The Fayette county boys defended the east goal the first half, and it proved a hoodoo. They made two field goals this half, and Father Sears only got five out of ten attempts at foul goals. At the west goal the Charleroi team carried on a pretty struggle and did some dandy shooting, Adams got five out of seven attempts at goals from foul.

When the second half opened Uniontown's regular list appeared, with Boggio on a forward and Slim Smith on center It was a very distinguished looking outfit. This half was more rapid than the second and

GOVERNOR TENER PROCLAIMS DAY

Thanksgiving Proclamation Issued---New Experience for Executive

Governor Tener has isued his Thanksgiving proclamation fixing a day of fasting and prayer for the people of Pennsylvania, naming, of course, the same date as that fixed by President Taft. This is Governor Tener's first proclmation of four that he will be called upon to isue during during his term of office. It is as follows:

"In the Name and by Authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Executive Department—Proclamation.

"During the past year the Supreme Ruler of the Universe showered abundant blessings upon our State and nation. The earth yielded her increase in response to the labors of the husbandman. Workmen found employment, trade and commerce advanced, the arts and sciences made commendable progress and the beneficient influences of education, religion and charity were felt throughout the Commonwealth. The blessings of peace with all the world have been ours in the largest degree. The Lord has shown us untold mercies and blessed our people with a large measure of health and happiness.

"It is characteristic of devout and fervent hearts to acknowledge dependence upon Him and to express gratitnde for all that He has bestowed upon mankind. Our forefathers have handed down to us the pious custom of setting apart each year a special day for thanksgiving and prayer.

"In acordance with this venerated custom, I, John K. Tener, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby designate and set apart Thursday, November 30, 1911, as Thanksgiving Day and earnestly request the people of the Commonwealth on that day to lay aside all worldly pursuits and to enter their several places of worship in sincerity of heart for the purpose of giving thanks to Almighty God for his mercies and blessings, earnestly beseeching Him for a continuance of His almighty favor."

GRAND JURY RECEIVES GOOD ROADS PETITIONS

Eight New Highways Asked for by County Residents

COST TO BE $652,207.05

Average Cost Per Mile over $20.000—Decision is Expected Today

Petitions were received asking for eight new highways by the grand jury at Washington Wednesday. Almost all day delegates interested in the various roads for which petitions were presented thronged the court house and appeared before the grand jury to argue their cause, when their respective road petitions were called for a hearing. There were in extent 32.42 miles of road asked to be improved, which would mean a total cost of $652,207.05, or an average cost of $20,181.63 a mile.

At the present time the petitions for the new roads do not form any excuse for campaign thunder, but are business propositions. Some of the leading citizens of the county were present in the interest of their respective districts.

Among the roads for which petitions were presented were the Westland road, 4 miles long; Pike Run extension, 4.5 miles; Beallsville-Fredericktown road, 3.59 miles; Claysville-Burnside road, 2.86 miles;Hill Church-Eighty-Four road, 5.81 miles; Avella Cross Creek road, 4.87 miles; Midway-Steubenville pike, 33.95 miles, and the Canonsburg-Thomas road, 2.84 miles.

A decision is expected today after the grand jury has considered the matter. The road for which the greatest amount of money would be spent in construction, should all petitions be granted, would be the Hill Church-Eighty-Four road, on which the sum of $112,959 would be spent. The Canonsburg-Thomas road would cost the least, $57,194.50.

Sold First Feed Here

Well Known Webster Flour and Feed Man Dies at Ripe Old Age

Word has been received here of the death in Webster of A. A. Perkins, aged 83 and a well known resident of the Monongahela valley. Demise occurred on Wednesday morning.

Mr. Perkins was a well known character and bears a wide acquaintanceship. For many years he has conducted a flour mill at Webster. He had the reputation of having bee nthe first man to sell feed in Charleroi, and was very proud of this fact. He came here when the town was in its earliest infancy and disposed of feed to dealers and in this way gained many local acquaintances. The funeral will be held on Friday morning at 11:30 o'clock.

DARGOSSE CHARGED WITH DEED

Accusation of Murder Against Charleroi Man

MYSTERY IN THE CASE

Bernard Dargosse of Chareroi, will have to undergo trial at Washington on the charge of murder. He is charged with killing John Plakatis, also of Charleroi whose body was found one Saturday night several weeks ago at the mouth of Mingo creek, his back containing three bullets. A true bill has been found against Dargosse by the grand jury

There is considerable mystery about the murder. Dargosse was arrested at Courtney, while wandering about with a revolver, attempting to hold up people. When brought to the Monongahela jail it was found that he was suffering form a wound on one of his hands, and later it was ascertained that he had been in company of Plakatis shortly before the murder. He was held by the coroner's jury.

NEW PASTOR TO BE INSTALLED

Local church people are much interested in the ceremonies to be held at the installation of Rev. Albert M. Gregg as pastor of the Monongahela Baptist church on Friday evening. Rev. Gregg recently assumed the pastorate there, coming from West Newton. He is a well known minister. It is probable some Charleroi people will attend the installation service.

PERSECUTION OF THE GIPSY

Forty-five Executed in Hungary in 1728 on the Charge of Being Cannibals.

The persecution of Gypsies recalls the old belief that the Gypsies were cannibals, and the methods by which judicial confirmation of the belief was sometimes obtained. In 1728 45 Hungarian Gypsies were executed on this charge. First racked until they confessed to murder, they were taken to the place where their victims were supposed to be buried and racked again. No bodies were discovered. Therefore they confessed to eating them, and were duly executed. Joseph II. sent a commission down to investigate the case later, and the entire innocence of the Gypsies was proved, but history does not say what happened to the witnesses for the prosecution.

Gypsies are still more or less "persecuted," though in our milder modern sense of the word. And no wonder. A couple of years ago it was stated on official authority that in Hungary most of the serious crimes—murders, kidnaping and robberies—were committed by Gypsies, and very few of the offenders were caught. Gypsies are mighty difficult customers to tackle. When it was proposed in France that all nomads should have identity cards, to be checked at each stopping place, one of them said to a Matin reporter: "But I can't read, and I can't write, and I don't know how old I am, nor where I was born, and I don't remember the names of the places where my children were born, nor their ages exactly. We don't bother ourselves about such things." What can you do with people so astutely ignorant?

Degrees of Opinion.

Let us not say to ourselves that the best truth always lies in moderation, in the decent average. . . . At the time of the Spanish inquisition the opinion of good sense and of the just medium was certainly that people ought not to burn too large a number of heretics; extreme and unreasonable opinion demanded that they should burn none at all.—Maeterlinck.

Mirrors in Decorations.

In the sixteenth century no lady was considered in full dress unless she had a mirror at her breast. It was oval in shape about 4 by 6 inches in size.

The Blushing Octopus.

The octopus frequently changes its color, like a marine cameleon It would appear, from recent studies of the creature, that the colored pigment whereby this change in color is effected is contained in envelopes in its skin, in the tissues of which are muscular fibers actuated by nerves Should these fibers become relaxed a dark pigment appears. The phenomenon is said to be analogous to blushing.—Harper's Weekly.

Keep in the Valley.

"People who make mountains out of molehills," said the Observer of Events and Things, "never get up on the mountains, so to speak."

How Tourists Economize.

A comedy of economy is reported from St. Moritz. A stout couple, accompanied by a son and daughter who were also "thick," as the Germans translate stout, entered a crowded hotel at the busy time of lunch and ordered one lunch at table d'hote. The father sat down and finished two helpings of soup and all the bread near him and left the table, his place being taken for the entrees by his wife, who had been waiting with her children in the hotel corridor until her husband appeared.

The young man then took his mother's place to attack the joint, and he was followed by his sister for the sweets, all doing justice to the menu. In the crowd the tourists did not notice the unusual lunch, but the head waiter did, and when asked for the bill presented one for four lunches. The paterfamilias grumbled a good deal—and paid!

was featured by whirlwind plays. Uniontown displayed great team work and Smith, the angular center, was ever ready to reach up to the basket and drop in the ball. Jacky Adams and his five were not weighed in the balance and found wanting, but they only scored five field goals and four fouls. They had the east goal and the hoodoo was still there,.

Brilliant in every particular but the brightest team work, the showing made by the local tossers was most encouraging. Team work is Uniontown's long suit. Charleroi players showed better individual form than the Uniontown five, taken as a whole. Charleroi plays at Uniontown tonight Score:

Youth Had Much to Learn.

An English gentleman once fell from his horse and injured his thumb. The pain increasing, he was obliged to send for a surgeon. One day the doctor was unable to visit the patient, and therefore sent his son instead. "Have you visited the Englishman?" said his father, in the evening. "Yes," replied the young man, "and I have drawn out a thorn which I ascertained to be the chief cause of his agony." "Fool!" exclaimed the father "I trusted you had more sense; now there is an end to the job."

WILL ASK TO HAVE THE COUNTY VOTES TALLIED

Martin to Serve Notice of His Contest Within a Few Days

NOT AT ALL SATISFIED

Other Proceedings May be Entered--Hon. Ed. Callaghan Makes Statement

Word from the county seat is to the effect that Joseph W. Martin of California, the Democratic-Keystone candidate for prothonotary, who according to the official count, was defeated by Dr. A. V. Lewis, of Donora, the Republican candidate by just 12 votes, will within a few days file notice of a contest through his attorneys, Sprowls and Barr. It is stated that an effort will be made to get the matter into the courts for adjudication at the earliestpossible time.

Evidence is being collected from various parts of the county, it is stated, and the marking of the double cross ballots will not be the only reason for making an investigation. Since the opinion of the Dauphin county court, stating that the double marked ballots clearly intimated the intention of the voter and ought to be counted as one was rendered, Martin feels much encouraged to make a contest. Charges of fraud and irregularity will also be made in some of the precincts, it is stated, one of which is the second precinct at Donora. In this precinct it is stated that ballots were cast before the board was organized, and that other irregularities were practiced.

In addition to Martin's impending contest another one is threatened. This is by former Assemblyman Edward Callaghan, who claims his name was illegaly omitted from the official ballot as a straight-out Democratic candidate for sheriff. Mr. Callaghan was a candidate for the nomination at the primaries. He refused to enter into a fusion agreement with the Keystoners, and claims that as he was not a party to the agreement he was entitled to a place on the ballot as the nominee of the Democratic party. Concerning this Mr. Callaghan says:

"As the intent of the voter is recognized by the law of 1903 and upheld by the Dauphin county court in the present case, it gives me a clean card as I can get the affidavit of every man who voted for me at the primary that I should be on the ballot as the straight-out candidate on the Democratic ticket."

As previously stated, Mr. Callaghan has prepared a petition to court asking that the election be set aside on these grounds He has already obtained a numebr of signatures to his petition and declares that he will carry the contest into the courts.

Accepts Call To Pastorate

Rev. E. J. Stanley of Newport, Ohio, Will Be Shepherd of Flock Here

Rev. Edwin J. Stanley, of Newport, Ohio, has sent word of his acceptance of the call extended over a week by the First Baptist church of Charleroi. He will be here to assume charge of the local pastorate the first Sunday in December. Last Saturday night he presented his resignation to his congregation at Newport and it was accepted

Rev. Stanley was extended a call conjunctively with the Donora Baptist church and half his work will be at the latter place He is a graduate of Dennisen university, and went to Newport from Sandusky, having been at the former place for about two years. He was at one time a missionary in Africa.

TO KEEP THEATRE RUNNING

The Coyle Will be Open Nightly Rest of This Week

CLAIMS OF MANAGER

Although James B. Patterson, deputy State factory inspector, ordered the Coyle Theatre closed as unsafe after an inspection Wednesday the house was open last night as usual. Manager S. English announces that the house will be open as usual the rest of the week, when the regular entertainment will be given.

In regard to the action of the Deputy Factory Inspector, Manager English states that he made a mistake in ordering the house to be closed. He says the law specifies that after an inspection the inspector must notify the owner of the house of deficiencies, if any, and allow a reasonable length of time for these to be corrected. The inspector cannot, Mr. English declares, according to law, order a house closed until the owners neglect or refuse to make the alterations necessary to comply with the law.

Mr.English therefore states that the Coyle will be open the rest of the week at the usual time pending a decision as to what will be done to comply with the law.

FORMER CHARLEROI MAN IS FOUND DEAD

Supposed to Have Fired Bullet Into His Own Brain While Temporarily Insane--- Body in Old Barn

With a revolver in his hand and a bullet wound in his head Walter Currey was found in an abandoned barn of the Vigilance coal mine near California, after he had been missing for about four days. Currey is supposed to have taken his life while in a fit of insanity. He formerly lived in Charleroi and it is stated an injury sustaned on the head about two years ago led to mental aberration. Deputy Coroner H. T. Ghrist has charge of the case and is making investigations.

The funeral was held today from the home of the man's mother-in-law Mrs. R. Hall, at Coal Centre.

Currey was last seen alone on Sunday when it is stated he visited friends in Brownsville. He left his home Saturday night and according to the story purchased a revolver. The next time he was seen by his wife he was dead.

Mr. Currey was employed when he worked as a driver in the mine. He was well known in the vicinity of California. His wife survives.

MURPHY-M'KENNA NUPTIALS TODAY

Charleroi Girl Becomes the Bride of Monessen Man at Church Wedding

At St. Jerome's Catholic church this morning at 8 o'clock John Francis McKenna ,of Monessen and Miss Grace Murphy of Charleroi were married. The ceremony was perfomed by Rev. W. D. Fries. The couple were attended by James McKenna, a brother of the groom and Miss Rosalia Flaherty. After a short trip the couple will go to housekeeping in Charleroi.

A large crowd of friends of the happy couple were in attendance at the wedding and gave them a joyous send off. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Murphy of Fallowfield avenue and her vivacious and charming personality has won for her a place in the affections of a wide circle of friends. The groom holds a responsible position at the Pittsburg Steel company's plant at Monessen, and is well regarded among his associates. Both have many friends in the two towns as well as elsewhere who extend congatulations and good wishes.

UNIONTOWN BEATS MAGIC CITY FIVE IN FIRST GAME

Capt. Andy Sear's Five Outplayed in Points But Finishes Strong

Amid wild enthusiasm the Central Basketball League season was opennight. Under Captain Andy Sears the Uniontown prize winners appeared on the local floor Wednesday night and opposing the Charleroi team under Manager-Captain Jacky Adams, successfully maneuvered themselves into a 34-27 victory.

Capt. Adamshadeverything arranged for the opener. Even the inevitable brass band and the engrossing preliminary were not forgotten. The band preceded by banners paraded the streets and then marched to the hall where it entertained. A team from Fayette City was defeated by a picked five from here in a fast preliminary.

Adams lined up with his regular five. Father Sears, doubtless consoling himself with the belief that the new team would be a cinch, trotted out a new lineup for the first half. From start to finish the game was a hummer. The Fayette county boys defended the east goal the first half, and it proved a hoodoo. They made two field goals this half, and Father Sears only got five out of ten attempts at foul goals. At the west goal the Charleroi team carried on a pretty struggle and did some dandy shooting, Adams got five out of seven attempts at goals from foul.

When the second half opened Uniontown's regular list appeared, with Boggio on a forward and Slim Smith on center It was a very distinguished looking outfit. This half was more rapid than the second and

GOVERNOR TENER PROCLAIMS DAY

Thanksgiving Proclamation Issued--New Experience for Executive

Governor Tener has isued his Thanksgiving proclamation fixing a day of fasting and prayer for the people of Pennsylvania, naming, of course, the same date as that fixed by President Taft. This is Governor Tener's first proclmation of four that he will be called upon to isue during during his term of office. It is as follows:

"In the Name and by Authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Executive Department—Proclamation.

"During the past year the Supreme Ruler of the Universe showered abundant blessings upon our State and nation. The earth yielded her increase in response to the labors of the husbandman. Workmen found employment, trade and commerce advanced, the arts and sciences made commendable progress and the beneficient influences of education, religion and charity were felt throughout the Commonwealth. The blessings of peace with all the world have been ours in the largest degree. The Lord has shown us untold mercies and blessed our people with a large measure of health and happiness.

"It is characteristic of devout and fervent hearts to acknowledge dependence upon Him and to express gratitnde for all that He has bestowed upon mankind. Our forefathers have handed down to us the pious custom of setting apart each year a special day for thanksgiving and prayer.

"In acordance with this venerated custom, I, John K. Tener, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby designate and set apart Thursday, November 30, 1911, as Thanksgiving Day and earnestly request the people of the Commonwealth on that day to lay aside all worldly pursuits and to enter their several places of worship in sincerity of heart for the purpose of giving thanks to Almighty God for his mercies and blessings, earnestly beseeching Him for a continuance of His almighty favor."

GRAND JURY RECEIVES GOOD ROADS PETITIONS

Sold First Feed Here

Well Known Webster Flour and Feed Man Dies at Ripe Old Age

Word has been received here of the death in Webster of A. A. Perkins, aged 83 and a well known resident of the Monongahela valley. Demise occurred on Wednesday morning.

Mr. Perkins was a well known character and bears a wide acquaintanceship. For many years he has conducted a flour mill at Webster. He had the reputation of having bee nthe first man to sell feed in Charleroi, and was very proud of this fact. He came here when the town was in its earliest infancy and disposed of feed to dealers and in this way gained many local acquaintances. The funeral will be held on Friday morning at 11:30 o'clock.

DARGOSSE CHARGED WITH DEED

Accusation of Murder Against Charleroi Man

MYSTERY IN THE CASE

Bernard Dargosse of Chareroi, will have to undergo trial at Washington on the charge of murder. He is charged with killing John Plakatis, also of Charleroi whose body was found one Saturday night several weeks ago at the mouth of Mingo creek, his back containing three bullets. A true bill has been found against Dargosse by the grand jury

There is considerable mystery about the murder. Dargosse was arrested at Courtney, while wandering about with a revolver, attempting to hold up people. When brought to the Monongahela jail it was found that he was suffering form a wound on one of his hands, and later it was ascertained that he had been in company of Plakatis shortly before the murder. He was held by the coroner's jury.

NEW PASTOR TO BE INSTALLED

Local church people are much interested in the ceremonies to be held at the installation of Rev. Albert M. Gregg as pastor of the Monongahela Baptist church on Friday evening. Rev. Gregg recenily assumed the pastorate there, coming from West Newton. He is a well known minister. It is probable some Charleroi people will attend the installation service.

Eight New Highways Asked for by County Residents

COST TO BE $652,207.05

Average Cost Per Mile over $20,000—Decision is Expected Today

Petitions were received asking for eight new highways by the grand jury at Washington Wednesday. Almost all day delegates interested in the various roads for which petitions were presented thronged the court house and appeared before the grand jury to argue their cause, when their respective road petitions were called for a hearing. There were in extent 32.42 miles of road asked to be improved, which would mean a total cost of $652,207.05, or an average cost of $20,181.63 a mile.

At the present time the petitions for the new roads do not form any excuse for campaign thunder, but are business propositions. Some of the leading citizens of the county were present in the interest of their respective districts.

Among the roads for which petitions were presented were the Westland road, 4 miles long; Pike Run extension, 4.5 miles; Beallsville-Fredericktown road, 3.59 miles; Claysville-Burnside road, 2.86 miles;Hill Church-Eighty-Four road, 5.81 miles; Avella Cross Creek road, 4.87 miles; Midway-Steubenville pike, 33.95 miles, and the Canonsburg-Thomas road, 2.84 miles.

A decision is expected today after the grand jury has considered the matter. The road for which the greatest amount of money would be spent in construction, should all petitions be granted, would be the Hill Church-Eighty-Four road, on which the sum of $112,959 would be spent. The Canonsburg-Thomas road would cost the least, $57,194.50.

THANKSGIVING.

Governor Tener has issued his Thanksgiving proclamation, which designates Thursday, November 30, as a day for State wide observance—a day in which the people are besought to lay aside their daily cares and efforts and take stock of the material and spiritual blessings that have been theirs during the past year. The day will be observed as a holiday generally and already preparations are on foot both publicly and privately to carry out its full significance.

Every individual who is alive has reason to be thankful, and the amount of blessings he enjoys perhaps measures up pretty nearly to his just deserts. There is no desire to enter into a discussion of this question pro or con, but the chief feature at this particular time is for each and every one to prepare for as happy an observance of the day as possible, and the greatest pleasure will be the happiness conferred upon others in expressing this sentiment. Unselfishness and Christian charity are causes for thanksgiving at any time of the year.

BLOOD HUNGRY CAPITALISM

Some anonymous contributor sends to the Mail a clipping from a newspaper, presumably a Socialist organ, containing a collection of extreme hard luck tales, which are reported from time to time in the news columns of the daily papers Here are some of the specimens:

"A woman walked the streets of Los Angeles and her baby starved to death at her breast."

"A working woman's baby lay three days unburied in Philadelphia because of the poverty of its mother."

"A woman in Atlanta, Ga, strangled her babe and drowned herself rather than see the little one starve."

In contrast to these hard luck stories are given incidents of extravagances and vageries of the ultra-rich, and the deduction is drawn that Blood Hungry Capitalism" is to blame for it all.

Both sides of the picture drawn present the extreme cases which happily are so few and far between that it cannot be said to represent a general condition anywhere in the United States. There are incidents where people starve who do not make their condition known, but it can safely be said there is not a communitty anywhere in the country but what contains charitable Christian people who would relieve any distress most quickly that is found to be urgent. A woman with a starving baby would not have to walk from McKean to Fallowfield avenue in Charleroi without receiving aid and succor, if she would reveal her true condition And the sentiment that prevails in Charleroi is the one that prevails over all the country.

There may also be some hard-hearted foolish rich people in the country, but they are the exception—not the rule. The vast majority of people in the United States, rich or poor, are warm hearted and charitable, and no extreme cases of poverty and suffering need to continue for any length of time if the unfortunates make their real condition known.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

"Speaking of beacon lights on the river reminds me of the first effort on the part of the steamboat men to get them introduced and established on the upper Monongahela." said C. B. Copeland "This was over 30 years ago. They had been located on part of the Ohio and proved a success, and the rivermen in this section were anxious for their adoption, but it took quite a while to get them

"I was employed at Lock No 4 and occasionally did a little newspaper work. Having many friends among the captains and pilots I was asked to write the matter up for the local papers, but insisted on an interview with some one directly interested in the matter. No one appeared to want to be quoted on the matter until finally Captain McMeans, a well known river man, submitted to an interview Substantiating in his statements his reasons for the beacon lights and the great advantage they would be to the boatmen on dark nights, the interview which by the way, was printed in the Monongahela Daily Republican, then edited by the late Col. Chill W. Hazzard, went the grand rounds of the local papers. The Pittsburg papers took it up, and it was not long until the matter became of much interest.

"Active steps were taken to have the lights located all along the river. 'Running the lights, is no uncommon phrase used among the boatmen in dark and stormy nights when the captain of the watch takes the helm on the 'midnight watch.'

A reader relates how a well known clergyman of his acquaintance having cause to be anxious about his son's college examinations, told him to telegraph the result The boy sent the following message to his parent:

"Hymn 242, fifth verse, last two lines.

Looking it up, the father found the words:

WAS THE FRIEND OF A KING

Merchant Told of the Strong Attachment of King Edward for John Bright.

An interesting account is given for the first time of an incident which began the friendship that existed between John Bright and King Edward VII. The story was told by Mr. Bright in the hearing of Mr. Connah, a merchant in Manchester. Mr. Bright, it seems, had, at a meeting in St. James' hall, rebuked those people who were criticising Queen Victoria for her rare appearances at public functions after the passing away of the prince consort On the following morning the private secretary of King Edward (then Prince of Wales) called upon Mr. Bright with a special request from the prince to call upon him at Marlborough house. Mr. Bright at first demurred, but yielding to the pleading of the messenger, he went, and he was received in the most friendly manner by the prince and introduced to the family circle. The prince took Mr. Bright aside and as a son thanked him for his kindly words on behalf of the mourning queen, and asked to be granted the privilege of being counted among the tribune's friends. "Whatever may be my personal opinion of kings and princes," Bright said, concluding his narration of the incident, "the man before me was a son making an appeal on behalf of his mother, and I could not resist it We shook hands, and have been close friends ever since."—Christian Science Monitor.

Children and Firearms Again.

Little Anna Quinn, fourteen years old was instantly killed the other day at Lowell, Mass by the explosion of a revolver held by her playmate, Thelma Borg, aged twelve years The two children, with Sonia Borg, a sister of Thelma and another play-fellow, were playing about the Borg home when they discovered the revolver After all had looked at it, Anna playfully held it against the heart of Thelma Borg 'I'm going to kill you," she said, smilingly The trigger was pulled, but the revolver failed to explode. Once more the weapon was examined by the children and then Thelma Borg took it and placed it close to the Quinn child's head Playfully she exclaimed: 'You killed me, now I'm going to kill you." She fired. This time the weapon exploded.

Good Mental Tonic.

As appearance means so much to the average woman, mentally as well as socially, the question often arises, "Is she justified in aiding or improving nature if she sees fit?" Many of our well-known medical men think that "make-up" is as good a mental tonic as anyone can take and greatly advise its use, especially for the girl who has some slight personal defect—a scar, a poor complexion or blood less lips, for the knowledge of her defects makes her shy and oftentimes sulky and miserable.

Youth's Commercial Instinct.

A boy of nine, who had never previously witnessed a collection in church was deeply interested, and when the bags were finally borne off by clergy and choir in procession, proclaimed in a loud whisper of sympathetic excitement, "Now they're going to share it out!"

Apt Description of Bigot.

The celebrated John Foster thus described a bigot: "He sees religion, not as a sphere, but as a line, and it is a line in which he is moving He is like an American buffalo—sees right forward, but nothing to the right or left He would not perceive a legion of angels or devils at a distance of ten yards on the one side or the other"

Misuse of Via.

A stroll through the shipping district gives many a wrench to the purist's soul "In front of all the commission houses," he said, "I see bales and barrels labeled 'via boat' or 'via train' Why does not somebody tell the shipping clerks that every time they write that they are insulting the English and every other language? 'Via' can be applied properly only to the place through which a parcel passes, not to the means of transportation."

An Innovation in Oil Heaters

The Perfection Smokeless Oil Heater, with its drums enameled in turquoise, is an ornament to any room, whether in the country or city home.

No home is quite complete without a Perfection Oil Heater. It is a necessity in the fall and spring, when it is too warm to start the regular heating apparatus, and too cool to be without heat. In the midst of winter it is often convenient as an auxiliary heater, as there are always some cold corners in a house.

The enameled heater always presents a nice appearance, as the enamel will not tarnish or burn off. It is not an "enamel paint," but it is the same as the enamel of your cooking utensils.

The Perfection is the most reliable and convenient portable heating device you can find. An automatically-locking flame spreader prevents turning the wick high enough to smoke.

Over-Worked Girls

Read What This Girl Says:

Appleton, Wis.—"I take pleasure in writing you an account of my sickness. I told a friend of mine how I felt and she said I had female trouble and advised me to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as she had taken it herself for the same trouble with wonderful results. I had been sickly [illegible] bad feelings every month that I could hardly walk for pain. I was very nervous and easily tired out and could not sleep nights. I had dizzy spells, and pimples came on my face. But I have taken your Vegetable Compound and I am entirely cured. I think it is the best medicine in existence."—Miss Cecilia M. Bauer, 1161 Lawrence St., Appleton, Wis.

THIS GIRL SAYS IT IS WOMAN'S BEST FRIEND:

Chicago, Ill.—"Your Compound cured all my troubles and I am feeling strong and happy and able to work now. Wherever I go I shall praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as I think it is woman's best friend. I have told all my friends the good it has done me."—Miss Maggie Isbauer, 2418 So. Whipple Street, Chicago, Illinois.

Lorimor, Iowa.—"I had a heavy cold in the spring and got all run down and was irregular. I had no strength and had bearing down pains in my sides and back, and was very nervous and excitable. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am all right again, and stronger than before."—Miss I. E. Williams, Lorimor, Iowa.

Is it not reasonable to suppose that a medicine that did so much for these girls will benefit any other girl who is suffering with the same troubles?

Does it not seem the only sensible thing to give such a medicine at least a trial? You may be sure that it can do you no harm, and there is lots of proof that it will do you much good.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

Gem of Ancient Architecture.

The Oratory of Gallerus, situated on the Dingle promontory in Kerry, is probably the oldest place of Christian worship in the United Kingdom. It is unique in its architecture, for it was built without mortar, and the arch was formed direct from the ground level by the peculiar placing of the stones. In the east gable is the only window in the building, while in the west is the small doorway. The building, which is now one of the national monuments of the Emerald isle, has recently been restored to perfect condition.

As He Understood It.

A Chinese boy, who was learning English, came across the passage in his Testament, "We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced," rendered it thus: "We have toot, toot to you, what the matter you no jump."

Life's Irony.

The tragedy of life was played again when Bernard Goennewich, a young Russian inventor, was killed by the poisonous fumes of a secret process of staining glass that was to make him millions.

DEVIL BIRD HAS AWFUL CRY

Natives of Ceylon Are Not to Be Blamed for Being Terrified by Its Scream.

Of all the awe-inspiring sounds emitted by wild creatures, none, it is said, is to be compared to that of the "devil bird" of Ceylon, whose cry has been likened to the scream of a human being undergoing the most frightful torture. Naturalists have identified this bird with the brown wood-owl found in Hindustan.

The natives of Ceylon regard the cry of this bird with superstitious horror, for, it is claimed, its scream heard at night presages the most dire misfortunes.

A British official of the Ceylon civil service has given some study to this curious bird. Its ordinary note, he states, is a magnificent clear shout like that of a human being heard at a great distance, and producing a fine effect in the silence of the night.

But the sounds that have earned for the bird its bad name, and which this officer reports he heard to perfection but once, are said to be well-nigh indescribable, the most appalling that can be imagined, and scarcely to be heard without a shudder. It has been compared to the cries of a boy in torture, whose screams are being stopped by strangulation.—Scientific American.

A Stupid Hunter.

Returning from two months spent on a ranch he was telling a story of hunting in the hills with an Englishman.

"All of us were out hunting one day," said he, "and the Englishman shot at everything that moved. If the wind carried a cloud of dust upward, you could depend on 'is ludship to shoot at it. So it happened that he narrowly missed shooting a young woman, who, with her husband, was visiting on the ranch. When our party returned the husband, boiling angry, approached the Englishman and said:

"'Look here, you damned stupid ass, you missed shooting my wife by an inch.'

"'Aw, missed her!' said the Englishman, either astonished or perplexed. 'By an inch, by Jove? Well, old man, I'm sorry, very sorry.'"

BURNS, CUTS, BRUISES

San Cura Ointment Stops Pain at Once. Draws Out all Poisons and Heals Promptly.

In all the world there is no ointment, no liniment, no remedy for burns, cuts and bruises that can compare with the antiseptic ointment called San Cura

Every person ought to have a jar on hand; it is the first and best aid to the injured in case of accident, and is the ideal remedy for so many other distressing and painful ailments besides.

For example: It is guaranteed by W. F. Hennings' to cure itching, bleeding and protruding piles, eczema, tetter, ulcers, salt rheum, boils, carbuncles and pimples, or money back.

In case of old running sores, no matter how long standing, a few poultices of San Cura Ointment will draw out every particle of poison and leave it in such a thoroughly antiseptic condition that the sore will heal, never to break open again.

We advise every reader to get a jar of San Cura Ointment today and keep it ready for an accident or emergency that may happen. 25 cents and 50 cents at W. F. Hennings' on the money-back plan.

Soap For the Scalp.

San Cura Soap is delightful for shampooing, because it is full of antiseptic properties that banish the germs of dandruff and other impurities from the scalp. It cures pimples and blackheads, too. 25 cents a cake at W. F. Hennings'.

Mail orders for San Cura Ointment and Soap filled by Thompson Medical Co., Titusville, Pa.

An Incident of the Road.

"Stop!" cried the man in the road. "You are exceeding the speed limit."

"That's all nonsense," retorted Binks, bringing his car to a standstill.

"That's what they all say," said the man in the road, climbing into the car. "You can tell your story to the magistrate at Hinktown—jest seven miles up the road. Start along, please."

They drove on in silence to Hinktown, where, as the car drew up in front of the courthouse, the man in the road got out.

"Much obliged for the lift," said he. "You can settle that matter of speed with the magistrate if you want to. As a stranger in these here parts I don't think my word would go for much."

Coachman Had to Earn Bequest.

A quaint paragraph appears in the will of Mrs. Julie Hall, of Brighton, England. At the reading of the will the other day it was found that she had bequeathed £100 to her coachman, provided he is in her service at her death, and "if I do not die through or from the effects of a carriage accident when he is the driver."

The Daily Newspaper

All experienced advertisers acknowledge that familiarity by the public with the name and nature of their wares is one of the first essentials of success. To attain this familiarity the eye must be appealed to, and appealed to repeatedly. Sporadic appeals are as useless as a bucket of water thrown on an arid plain. What the eye sees the mind holds, but they must see it daily---and the daily newspaper offers the only stable opportunity for the direct aim at the vision. The story told in the daily newspaper, day after day, is impressed on the mind. This impression is a valuable factor.

The Charleroi Mail reaches practically every English reading household in Charleroi, besides circulating up and down the river. At no time in the history of Charleroi has any Charleroi newspaper been so widely or eagerly read than is the Mail at the present time.

Over 7,000 persons read the Charleroi Mail every day

Can an advertiser by any other means reach the eyes and ears of so many people in a single day?

What would the bill distributor charge you for distributing 8,000 bill a day? Compare the cost of the bills and the distribution with the cost of an advertisement in the Mail.

The Ghost Walked.

The mistaken idea that one's troubles end with death was set aside in Starwich v. Washington Cut Glass Company 21 Wash. Dec. No. 13 (Adv. Sheets), in which the supreme court of Washington first announced that the defendant corporation "gave up the ghost." How it died is not fully apparent, but having yielded its spirit to the one who made it, it still retained its worldly cares, for in the next sentence the court said: "But that did not deliver it from the burden of its contracts."

Evidently, in this case, the ghost walked, being "in torment." Who shall henceforth say that corporations have no souls?—Case and Comment.

A Father's Vengeance

would have fallen on any one who attacked the son of Peter Bondy, of South Rockwood, Mich., but he was powerless before attacks of Kidney trouble, "Doctors could not help him," he wrote, "so at last we gave him Electric Bitters and he improved wonderfully from taking six bottles. Beware: Take Electric Bitters and be safe. Every bottle guaranteed. 50c at W. F. Hennings.'

PERSECUTION OF THE GIPSY

Forty-five Executed in Hungary in 1728 on the Charge of Being Cannibals.

The persecution of Gypsies recalls the old belief that the Gypsies were cannibals, and the methods by which judicial confirmation of the belief was sometimes obtained. In 1728 45 Hungarian Gypsies were executed on this charge. First racked until they confessed to murder, they were taken to the place where their victims were supposed to be buried and racked again. No bodies were discovered. Therefore they confessed to eating them, and were duly executed. Joseph II. sent a commission down to investigate the case later, and the entire innocence of the Gypsies was proved, but history does not say what happened to the witnesses for the prosecution.

Gypsies are still more or less "persecuted," though in our milder modern sense of the word. And no wonder. A couple of years ago it was stated on official authority that in Hungary most of the serious crimes—murders, kidnaping and robberies—were committed by Gypsies, and very few of the offenders were caught. Gypsies are mighty difficult customers to tackle. When it was proposed in France that all nomads should have identity cards, to be checked at each stopping place, one of them said to a Matin reporter: "But I can't read, and I can't write, and I don't know how old I am, nor where I was born, and I don't remember the names of the places where my children were born, nor their ages exactly. We don't bother ourselves about such things." What can you do with people so astutely ignorant?

Degrees of Opinion.

"Let us not say to ourselves that the best truth always lies in moderation, in the decent average. . . . At the time of the Spanish inquisition the opinion of good sense and of the just medium was certainly that people ought not to burn too large a number of heretics: extreme and unreasonable opinion demanded that they should burn none at all.—Maeterlinck.

Mirrors in Decorations.

In the sixteenth century no lady was considered in full dress unless she had a mirror at her breast. It was oval in shape about 4 by 6 inches in size.

The Blushing Octopus.

The octopus frequently changes its color, like a marine cameleon. It would appear, from recent studies of the creature, that the colored pigment whereby this change in color is effected is contained in envelopes in its skin, in the tissues of which are muscular fibers actuated by nerves. Should these fibers become relaxed a dark pigment appears. The phenomenon is said to be analogous to blushing.—Harper's Weekly.

Keep in the Valley.

"People who make mountains out of molehills," said the Observer of Events and Things, "never get up on the mountains, so to speak."

How Tourists Economize.

A comedy of economy is reported from St. Moritz. A stout couple, accompanied by a son and daughter who were also "thick," as the Germans translate stout, entered a crowded hotel at the busy time of lunch and ordered one lunch at table d'hote. The father sat down and finished two helpings of soup and all the bread near him and left the table, his place being taken for the entrees by his wife, who had been waiting with her children in the hotel corridor until her husband appeared.

The young man then took his mother's place to attack the joint, and he was followed by his sister for the sweets, all doing justice to the menu. In the crowd the tourists did not notice the unusual lunch, but the head waiter did, and when asked for the bill presented one for four luncheS. The paterfamilias grumbled a good deal—and paid!

Fat and Right Reverend.

was featured by whirlwind plays. Uniontown displayed great team work and Smith, the angular center, was ever ready to reach up to the basket and drop in the ball. Jacky Adams and his five were not weighed in the balance and found wanting, but they only scored five field goals and four fouls. They had the east goal and the hoodoo was still there,.

Brilliant in every particular but the brightest team work, the showing made by the local tossers was most encouraging. Team work is Uniontown's long suit. Charleroi players showed better individual form than the Uniontown five, taken as a whole. Charleroi plays at Uniontown tonight Score:

Youth Had Much to Learn.

An English gentleman once fell from his horse and injured his thumb. The pain increasing, he was obliged to send for a surgeon. One day the doctor was unable to visit the patient, and therefore sent his son instead. "Have you visited the Englishman?" said his father, in the evening. "Yes," replied the young man, "and I have drawn out a thorn which I ascertained to be the chief cause of his agony." "Fool!" exclaimed the father. "I trusted you had more sense; now there is an end to the job."

Advantage of Cheerfulness.

There are those who sneer at the cheerful philosopher and call him a cheerful idiot, but the cheerful idiot seldom goes adrift in his mind. Those who constantly travel the dark side of melancholy street are the ones who forget their real names and what they are here for.

Two Greatest Civilizers.

Increased means and increased leisure are the two civilizers of man.—Disraeli.

ITCH! ITCH! ITCH!

Scratch and rub—rub and scratch—until you feel as if you could almost tear the burning skin from your body—until it seems as if you could no longer endure these endless days of awful torture—those terrible nights of sleepless agony.

Then—a few drops of D. D. D., the famous Eczema Specific and, Oh! what relief! The itch gone instantly! Comfort and rest at last!

D. D. D. is a simple external wash that cleanses and heals the inflamed skin as nothing else can. A recognized specific for Eczema, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum or any other skin trouble.

We can give you a full size bottle of the genuine D. D. D. remedy for $1.00 and if the very first bottle fails to give relief it will not cost you a cent.

We also can give you a sample bottle for 25 cents. Why suffer another day when you can get D. D. D.?
